

Pastor's Notes

"And one cried to another and said: "Holy, holy holy is the Lord of hosts; The whole earth is full of His glory!" Isaiah 6:3

Can you imagine being in heaven and having these angelic beings crying out to one another, ""Holy, holy, holy is the Lord of hosts; The whole earth is full of his glory!" Over and over, just proclaiming the purity of God- or if you will- his sinlessness. What a moment this had to be for Isaiah to witness. The three times that they cry out "Holy, holy, holy" might be because of the Trinity, the triune God whom we serve. The Name of God the Father brings the thought of intensity in scripture. "But as He who called you is holy, you also be holy in all your conduct, because it is written, 'Be holy, for I am holy."" (1 Pet 1:15–16). Let us not forget that we too, have been call to holiness! We have been called by God to be set apart from the things of the world, and set unto the things of our God.

God Bless! Pastor Gerry Brown

TESTIMONY FOR JESUS

The majority of my life has been a constant battle of addictions and lusting of the flesh, until the Lord brought me to a point of realization that I wouldn't be able to overcome it on my own. For me personally, I fell exceedingly hard into the trap of alcoholism. I used it as a defense mechanism to numb me from all the pain and feelings of neglect that I carried into adulthood from an unstable and oftentimes, scary childhood. As a child, if it wasn't drug or alcohol abuse that I witnessed or was a part of, then it was gang violence and shootouts. After the years went by I eventually got married. However, my alcoholism was a crutch for the pain of a past that I still held onto and because of that, divorce happened. I buried and burdened myself with so much guilt and shame for the way I treated my wife. The final catalyst for me coming to U-Turn was to get right mentally and spiritually for myself first, and then to be a better father to the child we had together. But God had a plan all along to bring me back to His open arms, due to my ex-wife's father being the Senior Pastor of Calvary Chapel Vista. So, via that connection I was blessed by God to come to U-Turn, and I believe it's exactly where the Lord wants me to be. Since my time here with the ministry God has done a complete change on my heart and has quieted my racing mind. I've been renewed and redeemed as well as filled with a desire and passion to be consumed by His Word. Isaiah 26:3 truly has been a song of salvation with the amount of peace that the Lord has given me and because of that, all of the outside voices, temptations, and distractions no longer have control over me. My goal is to continue in the commitment of doing my absolute best at being a good and faithful steward of our Lord. To continue diligently in making my heart focused on Him and His ways, so that the state of my heart and spirit will manifest itself on the outward appearance allowing others to see Jesus through me. - Marcus
